

Mr. Carl Seay Burkhalter

January 21, 1932 - October 23, 2020

Mr. Carl Seay Burkhalter, born on January 21, 1932 in Kosciusko, Mississippi, passed away at age 88 on October 23, 2020 in Knoxville, Tennessee and is now in his forever home in Heaven. Carl was the loving husband of the late Joyce Anderson Burkhalter. Carl is survived by his sons, Michael S. Burkhalter (Connie Miller) and Donald S. Burkhalter (Kimberly Bryant); 3 grandchildren Alex Burkhalter (Melody), Wes Burkhalter (Jessica), Cassie Burkhalter and Corey Snapp; 4 great grandchildren, Gatlin and Zoey Burkhalter, Emma and Magnus Snapp. He loved Jesus, Cokesbury Church, the staff of Pinnacle Assisted Living, Mississippi State Bulldog football and spending time with his family and friends. At age 86, Carl moved into his first and not his last assisted living facility. He quickly decided he didn't like it there so he called himself a taxi, took it to Pinnacle Assisted Living, negotiated a price and called Don to move his stuff. He loved peanuts, popcorn, and junk food, but he hated hearing aids, canes and walkers because he was always young at heart. In lieu of flowers please donate in Carl's name to Susannah's House, c/o Cokesbury United Methodist Church, 9908 Kingston Pike, Knoxville, Tennessee, 37922.

“ Mr. Carl was my favorite person at PAL. He was an awesome individual who could always make me laugh! He always had a smile on his face and offered me popcorn every night. We would sit in his room and talk about football and about the good ole days. I miss my friend and I hope you rest in peace as a guardian angel watching over your family.

“ Carl was one of my best buddies at PAL, I cherished him, along with his family, with my entire heart. He always knew how to make someone feel better, whether it just be sitting with you in silence, or talking about what's going on in the world or cracking jokes at/with you. I am deeply sorry for your loss, my heart goes to the family during this hardship. I love you, Carl, buddy! Rest In Peace!
